

Undisputed Facts, and each denial in a nonmovant's Response to Proposed Undisputed Facts, must be followed by a specific citation to particular parts of (1) the affidavit of a witness competent to testify as to the facts at trial and/or (2) evidence that would be admissible at trial. The affidavits, deposition testimony, responses to discovery requests, or other documents and materials containing such evidence shall be filed and served with the Proposed Undisputed Facts and the Response to Proposed Undisputed Facts. Pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 56(c)(3) and 56(e), counsel and pro se parties are hereby notified that failure to provide specific citations to evidence in the record as required by this Standing Order and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56(c)(1) may result in an order denying the motion for summary judgment when the movant fails to comply, or, an order granting summary judgment when the nonmovant fails to comply.

4. The Proposed Undisputed Facts and Response to Proposed Undisputed Facts referred to above shall be filed and served along with the motion (and supporting papers) and certificate of service required by this Court's Motion Filing Procedure and the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56.

Any represented party moving for summary judgment against a party proceeding pro se shall file and serve, as a separate document, in the form set forth below, a "Notice to Pro Se Litigant Opposing Motion for Summary Judgment as Required by Standing Order Governing Motions for Summary Judgment." If the pro se party is not a plaintiff, or if the case is to be tried to the Court rather than to a jury, the movant will modify the notice accordingly. Notice to Pro Se Litigant Opposing Motion For Summary Judgment As Required by Standing Order Governing Motions for Summary Judgment

The purpose of this notice, which is required by the Court, is to notify you that the defendant has filed a motion for summary judgment asking the Court to dismiss all or some of your claims without a trial. The defendant argues that there is no need for a trial with regard to these claims because no reasonable jury could return a verdict in your favor. THE DEFENDANT'S MOTION MAY BE GRANTED AND YOUR CLAIMS MAY BE DISMISSED WITHOUT FURTHER NOTICE IF YOU DO NOT FILE PAPERS AS REQUIRED BY RULE 56 OF THE FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE AND THIS COURT'S STANDING ORDER GOVERNING MOTIONS FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT. COPIES OF THESE RULES ARE ATTACHED TO THIS NOTICE, AND YOU SHOULD REVIEW THEM VERY CAREFULLY.

The papers you file must show that (1) you disagree with the defendant's version of the facts; (2) you have evidence contradicting the defendant's version; and (3) the evidence you rely on, if believed by a jury, would be sufficient to support a verdict in your favor. To make this showing, you must file one or more affidavits disputing the defendant's version of the facts. An affidavit is a sworn statement by a witness that the facts contained in the affidavit are true to the best of the witness's knowledge and belief. To be considered by the Court, an affidavit must be signed and sworn to in the presence of a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths. In addition to affidavits, you may also file deposition transcripts, responses to discovery requests, and other evidence that supports your claims.

If you fail to submit evidence contradicting the defendant's version of the facts, your claims may be dismissed without further notice. It is therefore very important that you read the defendant's motion, memorandum of law, affidavits, and other evidentiary materials to see if you agree or disagree with the defendant's version of the relevant facts. It is also very important that you review the enclosed copy of Standing Order Governing Motions for Summary Judgment carefully. This Standing Order provides detailed instructions concerning the papers you must file in opposition to the defendant's motion, including how you must respond to specific facts the defendant claims are undisputed, see (a)(2), and how you must support your claims with specific references to evidence, see (a)(3). If you fail to follow these instructions, the defendant's motion may be granted. You must file your response papers with the Clerk of the Court and mail a copy to the defendant's counsel within 11 days of the filing of the defendant's motion with the Clerk of the Court. This 11-day period is extended an additional three days if any of the conditions of Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure are met (for example, if you received the defendant's motion by mail or overnight delivery service).
